

Understanding Domestic Violence

A seminar for Imams and Chaplains

Sunday October 23, 2011

10 am - 6pm

Lunch & refreshments provided

Elizabeth Buffum Chace Center

821 West Shore Road, Warwick RI 02889

Imams are often the first source of help sought by Muslims impacted by domestic violence. This seminar will provide imams with information about the dynamics of domestic violence, the various ways that domestic violence impacts each person in the family as well as the broader community, and some tools to respond more effectively to this complex phenomenon. There will also be opportunity for discussions to develop strategies for effective leadership response to domestic violence, and best practices for domestic violence prevention. The seminar will be co-facilitated by an imam and a licensed professional counselor, offering

Facilitators:

Imam Mohamed Magid, President, Islamic Society of North America (ISNA);
Executive Director of the All Dulles Area Muslim Society (ADAMS)

Salma Elkadi Abugideiri, LPC, co-director of Peaceful Families Project

Seminar is free and open to Imams and Chaplains only

Please RSVP by October 21, 2011

Register at <http://hfi-imamseminar-autohome.eventbrite.com/>

Questions: email us at rihealthyfamilies@gmail.com

Sponsored by Healthy Families Initiative (HFI), a program of the Rhode Island Council for Muslim Advancement. HFI strives to educate Muslim and non-Muslim communities on the Islamic perspective on domestic violence and serve as a platform for Muslims experiencing domestic violence, enabling victims to access intervention resources and direct services available to the community at large www.Mujalla.com